The Sacred Boom

With the demand for mystical services on the rise, a growing number of women are channeling their spiritual gifts into full-blown careers.

It's in the stars—and the data: After last year's massive social and economic upheavals (COVID-19, a contentious election, rampant racism and discrimination), many women are reconsidering their priorities and seeking different ways to find purpose; some are using their own spiritual gifts (and business prowess) to help. According to Google Trends, the number of searches for the word psychic in the U.S. peaked in March 2020. And research firm IBISWorld estimates the market for psychics will total $2.2 billion by the end of 2021. Oliver Niño, 35, a healer based in Sedona, Arizona, and Laguna Beach, California, whose clients include Demi Moore and Laura Dern, says there's been a tremendous surge in demand for his 30-day online course (which features lessons in how to shield yourself from others' energy) and eight-week energy-healing certification program. Of the 5,000 total sign-ups, about 95 percent are women, says Niño, who has gained half a million new followers on TikTok since November.

Colorado-Based Healer Oliver Niño on How To Clear and Protect Your Energy

In his new book, Oliver Niño, aka the Spiritual Activator, outlines some of the strategies—from child's pose to crystals—he teaches to online and in-person students from his southwestern Colorado retreat center.

Starting with the title, Spiritual Activator: 5 Steps to Clearing, Unblocking, and Protecting Your Energy to Attract More Love, Joy, and Purpose—released by Oliver Niño, aka the Spiritual Activator, in March—can sound a little esoteric. But the author and energy healer, who resides near a 40-acre retreat center in Dolores he purchased in 2020, says his methods aren't as arcane as they might seem.

"I like to take it from the basics," Niño says. "If you're talking to your parents on the phone or a loved one and you get into a heated argument, how do you release the negativity?" His suggested strategies include solitary walks in the woods, salt baths, journaling, and laughter.

"If somebody's never picked up a crystal or used incense and done energy work, it doesn't mean that they can't clear their energy," Niño says. "We're all born with different tools that feel natural to us. For some people, they love moving their bodies, right? They like exercising, yoga, dancing. Moving the body is a great way to move energy."

A Beginners Guide to Sacred Geometry by Oliver Nino – Colorado

Sacred geometry is all around us – it can be found inside the flowers that adorn your windowsill, the snowflakes that fall upon your tongue, the seashells you collect from the beach, the DNA encoding your cells, and even the very air that you breathe.

But what is sacred geometry? What do these sacred patterns mean? And how can you implement sacred geometry into your everyday life to promote inner peace, protection, and healing? That's what we're going to explore in this article.

What Is Sacred Geometry?

Because you'll find these sacred shapes in all natural patterns, sacred geometry is commonly referred to as the Language of God – the blueprint of creation and the origin of all form. Going as far back as ancient cave paintings, human cultures all over the world have recognized the significance and power of these natural shapes and patterns. Greek and Roman philosophers believed that specific geometric shapes contained symbolic or spiritual meanings. Shamanistic traditions believe sacred geometry conveys messages from the spirit world. And there are many ancient tales that claim that if you put fresh fruit inside Egyptian pyramids, it slows their decay.

Sacred geometry explores the energy behind these patterns – the energy of creation itself. And how we can use these shapes and tap into their pure form of energy to create inner harmony, rebalance, protect, and heal ourselves.

Oliver Nino, also known as "The Spiritual Activator", is a Sacred Geometry and Energy Activation expert, thought leader, and celebrity spiritual advisor to stars such as Demi Moore, Gwyneth Paltrow, Nina Dobrev, who has trained and certified healers from over 60+ countries. He and his wife Mandi have two children and are the co-founders of the Hustle and Heart Foundation which aims to change the world, one act of kindness at a time.

Do you ever feel like you're stuck in a rut? Or experience the same problems over and over again? The income bracket you can't seem to get past, the toxic relationship pattern that keeps repeating itself, the days that leave you feeling like you have nothing left to give... or maybe you're struggling with things like recurring fear, frustration, anxiety, depression, jealousy, and rage. These are all tell-tale signs that you have some energetic blocks in your life.

In this article, I'm going to share with you a simple 4-step process for protecting your vibration and clearing the deeply rooted energetic blocks that are secretly stopping you from experiencing abundance, happiness, and vitality.

But before we jump into that, it's important to understand what energy is and how energetic blocks affect us.

WHAT IS ENERGY?
Energy is the life force that flows through all of us. You, me, your neighbour across the street, the little kids playing soccer at the park... we're all made up of energy (and so is everything that is in the universe). Everything is connected through this invisible web of energy.

The state of our energy (aka our vibrational frequency) is ultimately what determines the quality of our life... how happy we are, how much money we make, how healthy our relationships are, the level of satisfaction and purpose we feel, and so much more.

The higher our vibration is, the more we're able to attract positive things into our lives... and the lower our vibration is, the more we're attracting negative things into our lives. This is why it's so important to keep our energy in check and maintain our true state of high vibration.

But what happens when you're experiencing an energy block that you can't get past?

What is an energy block and how does it affect you?

Energy blocks are limiting beliefs and thought patterns that cause you to unconsciously pull back from success and hold you back from achieving abundance in your life.

Most people subconsciously hold energy blocks in one or more areas of their lives – yet they have no idea that these energy blocks exist in them at all. Everything from a traumatic experience in childhood, to being laughed at in middle school sports class, to having your heart broken in college, to being rejected for your dream job, and much more. All of these things leave what's called "energetic marks" on your mind, soul and body.

And when these energetic marks aren't addressed, cleared and eliminated, over time, they become permanently imprinted in your subconscious pattern recognition and coping mechanisms. This is what actually causes you to repeat toxic patterns, remain stuck or plateaued at a certain health status or income bracket, and keep you from tapping into your true human potential.

But the good news is this: You can easily and effortlessly remove your energy blocks, raise your vibration, and see transformation in less time than it takes to finish a cup of coffee... seriously, I'm talking in 10 seconds or less. If you know the exact steps, that is.

HOW TO RELEASE ENERGY BLOCKS AND RAISE YOUR VIBRATION

These four steps will help you quickly release negative energy, even if it's coming from people or events outside of yourself! When I follow these steps, I'm able to not only observe any negative thoughts, or low vibrations, and return back to my ideal frequency in a matter of mere seconds.

When you're first starting this practice, it might take you longer to achieve a feeling of peace. But the more you practice, and make this four-step process part of your daily ritual, the easier it will get and the faster you'll be able to get back into your true energy.

The first thing you do when you're experiencing a low vibrational energy is:

STEP 1
Ask yourself: "Is this energy mine?" Ever feel mad for seemingly no reason at all? Or return home from the store feeling anxious and stressed? When an event took place that directly caused you to feel these emotions, there's a pretty good chance that you picked up on someone else's energy. This is more common than you think. But before you can address the energy and raise your vibration, you first need to know the source.

STEP 2
Next ask yourself: "Whose energy is this?" Who owns this energy that you're feeling? Was it someone you spoke to at the store? Or maybe someone is thinking of thoughts towards you? Think about the events that have occurred in your life and try to pinpoint where this energy might be coming from.

STEP 3
Now that you know exactly where this blocked, negative, or low vibrational energy is coming from... you can release it. So the next step is to set your intention.

If you know the exact person or place this energy came from you can name it. "I release [name] [name]'s energy that isn't mine and allow my true energy to elevate and transmute."

If you're not sure on the exact source, then you can substitute the name for: "whoever I'm connected to."

STEP 4
Now close your eyes and imagine your body filling up with unconditional love. If a specific colour comes to mind, allow it to fill you completely – coming down into your head and spreading through the rest of your body. Once you've filled your own energy space with unconditional love, you will send unconditional love to the individual and/or source that you picked up negative energy from. Like to envision a "love bubble" that's wrapping around them. Fill them up with unconditional love from afar and helping them transmute their own low vibrational energy.

Remember, when it comes to energy work, you can never go wrong with sending love. So fill yourself with love. Fill others with love. Fill the sky, the world, the universe with love until you can't see it anymore.

When you make this into a daily practice, you'll find yourself operating in a constant state of high energetic frequency – better able to manifest a life of health, abundance, wealth, love for anything else that you desire. ☑

About The Book

#1 INTERNATIONAL BEST-SELLING BOOK: "SPIRITUAL ACTIVATOR"

A 5-step, 15-day energy detox program from renowned energy healing expert, Oliver Niño that removes the crippling blocks from your energetic field that stand between you and abundance, purpose, peace, joy, and happiness.

Oliver Niño shares his 5-step energy reset that eliminates the energetic toxins that hold you back from being in your happiest, healthiest, and most abundant state of being.

In this book, Oliver explains how energetic blocks lodge themselves in your system as negative beliefs, emotions, and sometimes even physical conditions. Life traumas, ancestral roots, gestational trauma or environmental factors create feelings of fear, guilt, anger, betrayal, shame, uselessness, hurt, and inadequacy that can flow through you like dangerous, free radicals. These create walls in your energetic field, which can cause physical disease, relationship issues, feeling "stuck," a lack of abundance, a lack of purpose, a lack of confidence, anxiety, depression, or a general feeling of unhappiness.

Writes Oliver, "I find that when you cleanse, or remove, the blocks that weigh people down using my healing techniques, it not only detoxes their energetic fields—thus, healing various aspects of wellness—but also allows them to tap into a higher power and activate their own gifts, so that they can pursue their purpose on earth. Every one of us is naturally wired to clear our energy fields. Our souls arrived here in a clear, energetic state, and so it's possible to return to our natural way of being."

How Will Your Life Transform

WHEN YOU LEARN TO DETOX YOUR OWN ENERGY?

You'll stop absorbing energy from other people. Your triggers will lessen. This will continue to improve every time you do the energetic detox program.

New Thought Leader to Millions Worldwide

Oliver is a new thought leader to close to 3 million students from over 80+ countries. His recent workshop had over 15,000 paid attendees eager to experience his spiritual wisdom and teachings.

(Oliver speaking in front of 80,000 people online and in-person at a Gaia event)

As founder and creator of the Geo Love Healing Methodology, Oliver has performed more than 20,000 healing sessions and has trained and certified healers globally. He is on a mission to teach others how to clear, protect, and unblock their energy so they can attract more abundance, love, and purpose in their lives. As The Spiritual Activator, Oliver focuses on teaching people how to identify, activate, and master their spiritual gifts. He works on the entire energetic system, going straight to the root of the issue with one's aura, chakras, blood, organs, physical body, cellular level, DNA, gestational, generational, and karmic blocks. His healing usually takes effect after one session, rather than over a course of a long period of time.

“Supernatural Origins”

Oliver's Story

Originally from Manila, Philippines, Oliver moved to California after graduating from high school. He grew up in a Catholic family, though Oliver realized they had innate supernatural gifts that most other families didn't. His grandfather could channel the souls of dead relatives, his father could channel energy by using his tongue to communicate its sound frequency and his mother would have premonitions in forms of dream that would always come true. Around the age of seven, Oliver began to have his own curious encounters. He instinctively knew what people around him thought and felt, picked up on the presence of spirits in the room, and saw silhouettes of angels and other light beings too.

“The Spiritual Awakening”

After two years in the United States, he was introduced to a psychic named Christel and an energy healer named Nick who reopened Oliver's mind to the power of spirituality. Christel recommended Oliver take a trip to Sedona and, while there, hire a shaman tour guide. The shaman took Oliver's group to the top of vortex points, and when Oliver climbed to the peak of a small vortex point, he was almost immediately overcome by a very strong energy that rose up from the earth. Not only were his past traumas coming to the surface, but he saw a variety of sacred geometry symbols appear in his mind's eye out of nowhere. After a half hour of this, he finally opened his eyes and the symbols disappeared-but were replaced by the physical presentation of energy. This was the moment that initiated a clear connection with Oliver to a higher power, because the images and visions kept coming.

“The Birth of a Healer”

Four days after his trip to Sedona, he began to experiment with energy healing on himself using the various sacred geometry symbols that were revealed to him and it worked. He felt rejuvenated, clear, energized, and positive about his future and began doing healings on friends and family members.

His abilities spread through word of mouth and he ended up doing over 10,000 free sessions over a ten-year period.

“Spreading Love Around the World”

In 2016, Oliver launched the Geo Love Healing program, which is a 8-week, comprehensive certification program that teaches you how to use energy to get answers from your intuition and guides, heal yourself, gain mental clarity, remove energy blocks, and unlock synchronicities to tap into the effortless flow of your life.

Now, Oliver leads sold-out Geo Love Healing workshops and teaches packed, online sessions to clients all over the world.

“Family & Philanthropy”

Oliver is happily married to Mandy Morris, author, international life strategist and philanthropist. Oliver credits Mandy with motivating him to shine his light to guide others in their spiritual awakening.

When Oliver isn't healing the masses, he enjoys traveling with his two children and family. He and his wife Mandy are the co-founders of the Hustle and Heart Foundation which aims to change the world, one act of kindness at a time.

Oliver can also perform a live energy reading on the host, where he tunes in and uses his skills as an “Energy Medium” to discover the areas in the body where energy is trapped. It takes Oliver 7-14 seconds to scan the entire body for blocks. His hands will be 1-2 feet away from each area, scanning the entire body for blockages, then he shares the blocked areas, along with the spiritual messages and remedies for each area. This energy reading can be done both in-person or virtually, and is a great way to demonstrate Oliver’s gift and expertise in the moment.
